

—❖— MONOGRAM —❖—

—❖— EDITION —❖—

TWENTY-ONE.

MOLLOY.

Published for
J. A. POZZONI,

J. A. POZZONI,
MONOGRAM CO.

B. F. ALLEN & Co.

TWENTY ONE.

Words by F.E. Weatherly.

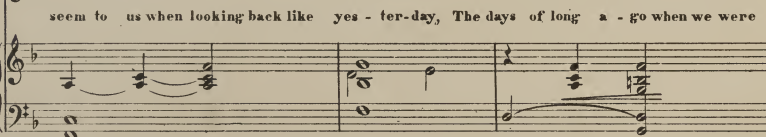

Music by J.L. Molloy.

Moderato e tranquillo.

VOICE.  They

PIANO.  dim. e rall.

 seem to us when looking back like yes - ter-day, The days of long a - go when we were young. A - cross the vil-lage winds the old fa - mil - iar way, The ve - ry same old songs are sung; The gos - sips chat-ting by the well remem-bered tree, The loy - ers roaming in the ling'ring summer sun; They talk and dream of ma - ny things as poco rall.

once we did, When we were on - ly twen - ty one.

Ped.

They come to us, those bon - ny days, our lives to bless, They come, but not in sor - row or in tears, For life with all its joy and all its love - li - ness, But deepens with the clos - ing years; While still our hearts are ev - er young and ev - er gay, And

Ped. *

Ped. *

mf

Heav'n still near-er leads our falt-ring footsteps on, What mat-ters af-ter all, if we are old and gray, Or if we're only twen-ty one. And

rall.

rall. p riten. pp

Ped. *

is not life, for young and old worth liv-ing then? Oh, answer from the heart, oh an-swer

f Ped. *

yes; To rise a-bove the world, and all the ways of men, To dim. *

dim.

win one lit-tle child's ca-ress, One lov-ing hand with ten-der cres.

clasp in your's to hold, And all life's du-ty as it should be brave-ly done, And

f

ah! you'll soon for-get if you are grow-ing old, Or if you're on-ly twen-ty pdim. e rall.

one, Or if you're on-ly twen-ty one.

PUT UP IN THREE SHADES PINK WHITE AND BRUNETTE

POZZONI

USE POZZONI'S

MEDICATED COMPLEXION

POWDER

A COARSE SKIN IS MADE FINE AND TRANSPARENT
BY POZZONI'S
DOVE

COMPLEXION POWDER

ASK YOUR DRUGGIST FOR IT.

J.A. POZZONI

ST. LOUIS.

B.F. ALLEN & CO.

AGENTS.

365 CANAL, ST. NEW YORK

